We’ve shot to overnight fame. Do ye know how that feels?

We’ve all gone a bit crazy. Freestyle Irish dancing and uncomfortably long hugs all around. It’s been totally emotional. Like an embarrassing acceptance speech at the Oscars. Smiling through the tears, saying ‘tanks a million’ over and over.

Let’s be serious for as little time as possible. We love what we do, and this epic award means so much. Knowing that our passengers love us too, is worth more to us than all the Guinness in Ireland...

Okay, hold on...
Could we maybe have both?

Our new celebrity status won’t change us. We’ll be keeping it real and having ‘the craic’. We’ll just casually ask anyone who will listen...

We’re sitting on top of the world. Not even joking. Our passengers have spoken, and we’ve been crowned the no. 1 multi day tour experience in the world!

WE’VE WON AWARDS!

@jackenoronha
THERE IS NOWHERE
Come with us on a journey spanning rolling green hills, dramatic coastlines and ancient monuments of the North and South. Our unmissable highlights include Blarney Castle, Galway, The Cliffs of Moher and The Giant’s Causeway.

North of the wall, we enter the ‘Home of Thrones’ where we follow the three-eyed raven across epic landscapes to the heart of the Seven Kingdoms. Conquer the Iron Islands and wander through the “Dark Hedges”.

After action-packed days roaming the magnificent Irish countryside, we congregate in the cultural centre of Ireland... the pub. Experience our world-famous cheeky charm and infectious laughter in the most authentic way possible. Our Irish adventures are shamelessly good fun. From the moment you arrive ‘the craic’ will flow as freely as Guinness, and we’ll have you laughing quicker than you can say “tanks a million”.

QUITELIKE IRELAND

OUR EMERALD LANDSCAPES WILL BLOW YOUR MIND AND CAPTURE YOUR HEART.
WHAT’S THE CRAIC?

CEOL-MUSIC
CRINCE-DANCE
RAMHRÁN-SONG
NÍS SCÉALTA-STORIES
CAINTE-GOSSIP
Official definition of ‘craic’: enjoyable time spent with other people, especially when the conversation is entertaining and funny.

“What’s the craic?” = “How are you?” or “What’s happening?”

Our definition: ‘the craic’ is all about the good times, jammed into one awesomely Irish package. Experience the best of Ireland, laugh ‘till you can’t breathe, and make new friends from all over the world. That’s our tours in a nutshell.
THE CRAIC AND MUSIC ARE LIKE THE CHICKEN TO THE EGG.
WHICH CAME FIRST?

Music is a fundamental part of Irish culture. Our tours are buzzing with live music and our guides know the best bars with traditional tunes at every stop. Whether it’s an Irishman on a fiddle or a leprechaun on his whistle, music is the best way to get the craic started.

WE’RE HAVING TOO MUCH FUN TO CRAIC THAT ONE!
OUR DANCING PHILOSOPHY:

THE MORE YOU CARE,
THE LESS YOU ROCK.
SO DANCE LIKE
NOBODY’S WATCHING...

AND EVERYONE WILL!

We love to dance. Whether it’s a reel, a jig, or a St Paddy’s twerk-off, we’ve been there, done that. Give us modern music or traditional tunes - we’ll bust our best moves either way. On our epic Irish tours, there’s always a place for you to strut your stuff, from bar to bus.
AMHRÁN SONG

THERE’S AN IRISH SONG FOR EVERY OCCASION
THE SAD ONES WILL MAKE YOU LAUGH
THE HAPPY ONES WILL MAKE YOU CRY.
EITHER WAY, IT ALL...

FEELS GOOD!
Ireland has been through a lot, and we all need a song or two to get us through the tough times. Irish people sing their emerald hearts out, and tug at the strings on yours. These special songs will stay with you forever.
INIS SCÉALTA
IF STORIES ARE THE TRUE CURRENCY OF HUMANITY, OUR LEPRECHAUNS, GIANTS AND FAIRIES MUST MAKE US THE RICHEST PEOPLE...

We love a good yarn. Few places have a tradition as rich in storytelling as Ireland. There are many to hear, and they get better (and more believable) with every sip of Guinness.
WE LOVE A GOSSIP. AFTER ALL, LIFE'S TOO SHORT TO TAKE SERIOUSLY.

Who can resist a grand old gossip? Once the Irish whispers set in, you won’t believe the yarns spun about our poor old Paddy. Either way, what happens on tour stays on tour; you can keep as much or as little of it to yourself as you like.
Our 100% Irish guides are the real deal: laugh-a-minute, local legends with superstar storytelling skills. When they spin a yarn, you'll hang off their every word. They are living proof that kissing the Blarney Stone gives you the eternal gift of the gab! Oh, and a heads up: you'll probably develop a crush – and that's okay. Our guides could charm the birds from the trees. Whether it’s their crazy passion, that gorgeous lilt (one of the sexiest accents in the world) or the cheeky twinkle in their eye – you’re guaranteed to leave a piece of your heart in Ireland.

I absolutely adore working for Shamrocker. I get to travel my own wonderful country, meet amazing people from all over the world, and constantly learn new things for a living. I love being part of someone's Irish experience, and I also leave each tour with my own special memories. I have hundreds of photos on my phone from my adventures on tour – and I treasure them! When I meet the other guides for pints after work, we spend most of the time reminiscing on our tours; sharing facts, funny moments, and our versions of myths and legends. Proof that we’re so passionate about what we do.

The best thing about being a tour guide is getting to talk to people from all over the world. Ireland is full of beautiful landscapes, and I feel proud showing it all off to my passengers. My favourite tour stop is Blarney Castle; there’s so much to explore and I always find new places each time I visit. I don’t need to kiss the Blarney Stone – apparently, I already have the Irish gift of the gab!

Being a tour guide is a job that I am enjoying immensely. How many people can honestly say that? I love life on the road, and the various characters I get to meet along the way. Everyone has their own story to tell, which is what Ireland is renowned for. My favourite place on tour would have to be Inis Mór, the largest of the Aran Islands; it’s like a home away from home. When I’m cycling along the coastal route, experiencing the views from Dun Aengus, and spotting seals – there’s nowhere I’d rather be. Also, the Guinness over there is top notch!

I got my first taster of tour life on my travels through South East Asia, so I decided to continue my travels by becoming a guide myself. I grew up at the foot of the Dublin Mountains, and I love sharing the music, culture, folklore and history of my country. The Irish are known for being epic storytellers, with myths and superstitions which have been passed down through generations – I am lucky to share this tradition with visitors from all over the world. There’s nothing like watching a live band, or exploring the Gaelic speaking island of Inis Mór; one of the most authentic experiences you can have in Ireland!

I’m an Irish gal through and through. The things I love the most about my job are showing off the beauty of my country, while retelling the old tales and keeping our culture alive! To learn is to live, and I love imparting my knowledge to all those who listen! I get to do this and meet people from all over the world at the same time. My favourite place in Ireland has to be the diverse gardens of Blarney Castle, where I can watch the wildlife and soak in the mythical Irish beauty.
ALL IRELAND ROCKERS
Our ultimate Irish adventure! Traditional music, stunning scenery, ancient monuments and vibrant towns, plus great craic on the road and at night for seven action-packed and fun-filled days!

DAY 1 | DUBLIN → BALLINTOY
We head north to explore Belfast and its political murals on a Black Cab Tour, with time to grab some local produce from the many Belfast eateries then on to the ‘Dark Hedges’ seen in Game of Thrones as the Kingsroad. We’ll spend the night in Ballintoy, where you have the chance to cross the Atlantic over the Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge.

DAY 2 | BALLINTOY → DERRY
Follow in the footsteps of giants on the eighth natural wonder of the world, the Giant’s Causeway. Created by giant or geology? You decide! We overnight in the medieval city of Derry where you get face-to-face with its troubled history, both past and present, on an award-winning walking tour. (B)

DAY 3 | DERRY → GALWAY
We cross back into the Republic to explore the wild and rugged mountains of Connemara before stopping for lunch in the charming town of Westport. Vibrant Galway, Ireland’s cultural capital with its many pubs and live music is our home for the next two nights. (B)

DAY 4 | INIS MÓR
Travel back in time as we cross the Atlantic to Inis Mór, the largest of the Aran Islands. Hire a bike or a horse and cart and spend the day exploring this ancient, Gaelic-speaking island. A truly unique experience! (B)

DAY 5 | GALWAY → ENNIS
We make our way through the lunar landscape of the Burren and on to the Cliffs of Moher, rising hundreds of feet over the Atlantic Ocean. We overnight in Ennis, where the pubs are filled with locals playing Irish music. (B)

DAY 6 | ENNIS → KILLARNEY
We take the stunning Slea Head drive on the dramatic Dingle Peninsula, full of breathtaking scenery and fresh Irish air. Hear about the adventures of warriors and heroes before we make our way to the party town of Killarney. (B)

DAY 7 | KILLARNEY → DUBLIN
We enter the rebel County of Cork and head to Blarney Castle. It’s time to get the ‘gift of the gab’ and kiss the famous stone! Take in the ancient seat of Kings of Munster, the Rock of Cashel before we arrive back to Dublin. (B)

THE DARK HEDGES

Dating back to the eighteenth century, the beautiful avenue of beech trees was planted by the Stuart family to impress visitors as they approached their home, Gracehill House. Two centuries later, and with the help of Game of Thrones, they still impress today and are better known as ‘The Dark Hedges’.

Inis Mór is an island off the west coast of Ireland. It is not big; only 31sq. miles with a population of less than 900, but has a staggering 3,000 miles of stone walls and an awesome Iron Age ring fort that begs to be explored. It retains a strong grasp on the Irish language and traditions and is one of the most welcoming places on Earth. Hire a bike or a horse and cart to explore and prepare to fall in love.

MIGHTY CLIFFS OF MOHER
- EERIE MOON-LIKE LANDSCAPE OF THE BURREN
- WILD COAST OF THE DINGLE PENINSULA

DAY 1 | DUBLIN → KILLARNEY
Travel past the River Liffey on the way to Rock of Cashel, where you awaken your Celtic spirit before a visit to Blarney Castle in the rebel county of Cork. Don’t miss the chance to kiss the famous stone for the ‘gift of the gab’! We stay overnight in the party town of Killarney.

BLARNEY CASTLE

Blarney Castle was built nearly six hundred years ago by one of Ireland’s greatest chieftans, Cormac MacCarthy and is home to the famous Blarney Stone, which is found at the top of the tower. Hang upside down at 11 meters and give the stone a big juicy smacker to get the legendary ‘gift of the gab’. You’ll never again be lost for words!

DAY 2 | KILLARNEY → ENNIS
Go to the edge of the ancient world to explore the wilderness of the dramatic Dingle Peninsula and the stunning West Coast. After lunch why not head to Murphys, an artisan ice cream company in Dingle for the best ice cream ever! Finish the day in County Clare, listening to traditional Irish music and drinking Guinness in a cosy local pub. (B)

DAY 3 | ENNIS → DUBLIN
Brave the heights at the stunning Cliffs of Moher before we explore the eerie moon-like landscape of the Burren. Finish off with lunch in colourful Galway, a buzzing university town with many buskers, before returning to Dublin. (B)
A VERY IRISH PROPOSAL 🍀

SHAMROCKER STYLE!

“Just when I thought our 7 Day Tour couldn’t get any better, I left Ireland with a ring on my finger 👰🏻 My partner Danny popped the question on our last night in Dublin, and it was the perfect end to our adventure. Little did I know, this wasn’t how it was supposed to be… Danny had originally planned to propose at the stunning Cliffs of Moher in the sunshine, but he decided against it thanks to our epic Irish hangover! 🍀 We blame our legendary tour guide Kevin for showing us such a good time. Best week EVER!”
We know our tours are fan-feckin-tastic but don’t just take our word for it! See what our passengers have been saying...

@torimcarthur / Australia

Spending a whole week travelling around Ireland and Northern Ireland is one of the most incredible trips that I have ever taken!

@caitlinjay__/ Australia

Sheep, rolling green hills and breathtaking coastline – Ireland you’ve amazed me so far 😊

@jackienoronha / Australia

Oh my wow! What an amazing week it’s been, travelling around one of the most beautiful countries in the world. I love travelling, not only for the breathtaking places you see, but also for the amazing friends you make along the way, Ireland, you’ve been a dream!

@em.fitnfab

It’s time to say goodbye to a country that stole my whole heart. I’ll miss the rugged landscapes, magnificent coastlines, seaside towns, endless herds of sheep and, most importantly, the amazing people who made my trip one I’ll always remember. Éirinn go Brách!

@pleasestampmypassport / Dubai

Friends you make during your travels and the times you spent with them are the best memories you can take back with you. Here’s to an epic week with these lovely people!

Friends you make during your travels and the times you spent with them are the best memories you can take back with you. Here’s to an epic week with these lovely people!
ST. PATRICK'S DAY

GUINNESS STOREHOUSE

It’s not a trip to the Emerald isle without tasting a pint of the black stuff and where better to do this than at the home of Guinness! Through this seven-storey experience, find out exactly what is involved in making the world’s most iconic stout and then sample it for yourself in the Guinness Storehouse’s very own gravity bar with panoramic views across the city. Sláinte!
ST PATRICK’S DAY FESTIVITIES

The nation’s favourite holiday and everyone’s invited! Head to the heart of the action for this monumental occasion and check out the legendary St Patrick’s Day parade. The parade boasts a spectacular atmosphere that cannot be missed; live music, dazzling street performances, and both Irish and international bands marching through the street. The Irish are certified experts when it comes to celebrations so expect the ‘craic’ to be mighty!

TEMPLE BAR

Located in the heart of Dublin, this vibrant area has the highest density of pubs in Dublin city. There is no better place to check out the local talent. Enjoy a wander around the cobbled streets, lined with cafes, bars and restaurants and soak up the lively atmosphere as buskers play to their hearts content. Be sure to head into one of the many pubs or bars to enjoy some traditional live Irish music. Grab a pint and prepare to party!

The ultimate St Patrick’s extravaganza! See all of Ireland before you celebrate the world’s favourite saint in Dublin. Serious festival fun, Irish-style antics, and all the Guinness you can drink! One island, one trip, a once in a lifetime experience.

DAY 1 | DUBLIN → KILLARNEY
We head into the lush green Irish countryside, pass the River Liffey and the Rock of Cashel on the way to Blarney Castle in the rebel county of Cork. Here’s your chance to get the ‘gift of the gab’ if you dare to kiss the famous stone!

DAY 2 | KILLARNEY → ENNIS
Go to the edge of the ancient world to explore the wilderness of the dramatic Dingle Peninsula and the stunning West Coast. Finish the day in County Clare, listening to traditional Irish music and drinking Guinness in a cosy local pub. (B)

DAY 3 | ENNIS → DUBLIN
Brave the heights at the stunning Cliffs of Moher before we explore the eerie moon-like landscape of the Burren. Finish off with lunch in colourful Galway, a buzzing university town with many buskers, before returning to Dublin. (B)

DAY 5 | ST PATRICK’S DAY, DUBLIN
Today is the day you’ve been waiting for! Get your funkiest green outfit on when we head to the heart of the action, Temple Bar. Squeeze into a nearby pub for a live music session or join the dancing on the streets. This is St Patrick’s Day done by the Irish on their native soil… expect a wild one! (B)

DAY 6 | DUBLIN → BALLINTOY
We head north to explore Belfast and its political murals on a Black Cab Tour with time to grab some local produce from the many eateries of Belfast. Next stop ‘Dark Hedges’. We spend the night in Ballintoy, where you have the chance to cross the Atlantic over the Carrick-a-Rede Rope Bridge. (B)

DAY 7 | BALLINTOY → DUBLIN
Follow in the footsteps of giants on the eighth natural wonder of the world, the Giant’s Causeway. Created by giant or geology, you decide! After a fan-feckin-tastic time celebrating St Pat’s, it’s time to bid farewell to your new friends and the Emerald Isle! (B)
DAY 1 | DUBLIN
Arrive in Dublin and check in to your hostel before joining us for the Shamrocker St Pat’s party for the evening. Have your first taste of Guinness on Irish soil and dance to traditional live Irish music. The party has started!

DAY 2 | DUBLIN
Join your local Guide for an orientation walking tour of Dublin’s Fair City and learn how the ‘black stuff’ is made at Guinness Storehouse. Spend your night enjoying the festival vibe and put the finishing touches to your green outfit for the main event. (B)

DAY 3 | ST PAT’S DAY, DUBLIN
The big day. Dress up in green and head to the heart of the action for the St Patrick’s Day Parade and all the festival fun. This is the wildest party in the world and you will experience it with the locals. (B)

DAY 4 | DUBLIN
After a fan-feckin-tastic time celebrating St Pat’s, it is time to bid farewell to the Emerald Isle and your new friends. You can leave Ireland, but it will never leave you! (B)

The Romans called Scotland ‘Caledonia’ meaning ‘Wooded Heights’ but today less than 1% of Scotland’s native woodland remains. Since 2011, HAGGiS Adventures has teamed up with ‘Trees for Life’, a Scottish charity dedicated to restoring 600 square miles of self-sustaining, Caledonian forest with the aim of helping Scotland ‘stay wild’. Under our ‘Stay Wild’ project we have raised thousands of pounds in support of ‘Trees for Life’ and our customers have planted hundreds of trees in our dedicated ‘HAGGiS Grove’.
